MESSAGE

I am glad to know that Shree Baba Harballabh Sangeet Mahasabha has planned to organise 122nd Harballabh Sangeet Sammelan from December 26 to 28, 1997 and to bring out a Souvenir.

Music knows no barriers. It has always played a vital role in promoting harmonious culture in our society. It is heartening to note that Shree Baba Harballabh Sangeet Mahasabha has maintained the tradition of organising this Sammelan every year which is a great source of entertainment to the music lovers.

I am sure the Sabha would continue to organise such grand gala events every year in all times to come.

MESSAGE

Harballabh Sangget tradition is a proud heritage of Jalandhar. It is gratifying that the citizens of Jalandhar have maintained the grandeur of this tradition. The organising committee of this gala event is efficient and devoted. It has tried to upgrade the management in different aspects so that this grand event becomes a national attraction.

Contributions of Lt. Gen. (Retd.) B.K.N. Chhibber, Governor of Punjab, Shri Parkash Singh Badal, Chief Minister of Punjab, Shri Amitabh Pandey, former Secretary Culture, Govt. of Punjab, Shri Dinkar Gupta, former S.S.P. Jalandhar and, above all, Sat Guru ji Maharaj of Bhaini Sahib have elevated the status and ambitions of this institution. I need not mention here the names of citizens of Jalandhar who are the prime mover of the show. This is one even which is whole-heartedly supported by the officers of the district and the state government without request.

We have started a few new traditions and have envisaged a few ambitions for the promotion of classical music. Harballabh Sangeet Samman and Harballabh Sewa Purskar have been introduced respectively as honour for exemplary contributions to Indian classical music and awards for outstanding services to Indian classical music. Tradition of a seminar on the occasion of the sangeet festival has been introduced so that eminent artistes, patrons of classical music, leaders of the society and youngsters (SPIC MACAY) join together to deliberate on different aspects of Indian classical music. The third new tradition is regarding beneficial linkage with SPIC MACAY which is invited to hold its annual convention at Jalandhar during the Sammelan.

Wider publicity and elaborate stay arrangements are other aspects of the changes introduced to reach out largest possible audience.

Our new ambitions are : opening Harballabh Sangeet Vishwa Vidyalaya based on 'guru-shishya parampara' and starting national level competition of younger talents and their further promotion in classical music. We pray to God for success in these ventures.

I am happy to know that Shree Baba Harballabh Sangeet Mahasabha is organising 122nd Harballabh Sangeet Sammelan.

Harballabh Sangeet Sammelan is the oldest Hindustani Classical Music festival. The Hindustani classical music is a unique pride of Indian Heritage equally shared by Muslims and non-Muslim musicians. Even during the Mughal period, Hindustani Classical musicians were being honoured by the Emperors. Akbar enriched it by patronising Tansen.

Harballabh Music Festival has also been recognised as a National Festival by the Government of India which this year coincides with the Golden Jubilee celebrations of the country.

I wish the office-bearers of Shree Baba Harballabh Sangeet Mahasabha all the best.

SWAMI HARIBALLABH

The Hariballabh Sangeet Sammelan is named after a man whose devotion to music is legendary.

Born in a well-to-do Brahmin family in Baijwara (near Hoshiarpur), Hariballabh lost his parents at an early age. He was brought up by his maternal grandfather, who lived near Jalandhar at a place called Bagh Farindlal. The child Hariballabh often accompanied his grandfather to a temple at Devi Talab, where a holy man called Tulja Gir had set up a 'dera'. Swami Tulja Gir was not only an ascetic, he was a man of a very refined musical sense and a great lover of 'dhrupad'. In fact, many of his 'dhrupad' compositions are sung in the Punjab even today. These evenings must have had a deep impact on the mind of Swami Hariballabh, for he took to sitting on the steps of the tank at Devi Talab and meditating on what he had heard from Swami Tulja Gir. As he grew older, he became even more deeply attached to Swami Tulja Gir and found himself ready to renounce this world for the pleasures of serving his guru. He learned the holy scriptures, sanskrit and many philosophical lessons, but what he imbibed and retained most deeply was an abiding love for music.

Impressed by the extraordinary nature of his disciple, Swami Tulja Gir, named him his successor when he passed away in 1874 and Hariballabh became Swami Hariballabh. One of the first important landmarks of this remarkable man's life was in 1875, when Swami Tulja Gir's first death anniversary was celebrated by Swami Hariballabh in a new and innovative manner. Since he knew his guru so well, Swami Hariballabh decided to hold a memorial ceremony where Sadhus and Saints were invited to sing devotional compositions at his samadhi. This became an annual event, and it is here that the seed of the sammelan, as it exists today, was first planted.

In time, this became an annual celebration. A 'langar' was organised where sadhus were fed and where for three or four days there was an unbroken relay of 'dhrupad' and classical music. The fame of this event spread far and wide and many lovers of music flocked to hear and participate in this remarkable 'Mela'. One such devotee was Tolo Ram who became to Swami Hariballabh what Hariballabh had been to Swami Tulja Gir. When Swami Hariballabh attained his 'Samadhi' in 1885, Swami Tolo Ramji kept this tradition alive. He built a shrine in memory of his Guru where his 'Kharaon' and Tanpura were placed and which exists even today. He roamed all over the country seeking musicians and donations and it is his devotion to Swami Hariballabh's creed and his untiring efforts that ultimately led to the establishing of the Hariballabh Sangeet Sammelan as an annual event where the best of Indian Classical music was presented by all the leading musicians of the age.

What Swami Hariballabh left was more than just a name to attach to a Sangeet Sammelan. He planted the seed of a tradition that grew and flourished for over a century and continued to grow from age to age. Musicians come here not merely to perform and dazzle but to offer their art in humble supplication at the shrine of truly great humanist.

SEMINAR ON TASKS AHEAD FOR THE PROMOTION OF OUR MUSICAL HERITAGE

The Harballabh Sangeet Sammelan, which celebrated its 121st year in 1996, held a Seminar on 'The Tasks Ahead for the Promotion of our Musical Heritage' under the auspices of the Organising Committee of the Harballabh Sangeet Sammelan on Dec. 22, 1996 at the Circuit House, Jalandhar. The invitees were a selection of country's top classical artistes, music critics, mediapersons, the Chairman of the National Lalit Kala Akademi and state officials concerned with cultural affairs. The Governor of Punjab agreed to preside over one session and offered some valuable suggestions to the participants.

The first speaker was the Commissioner of Jalandhar Division, Sh. B.K. Srivastava, who as the President of the Organising Committee, had taken an active interest in arranging the Seminar. He spoke of the need to establish a Sangeet Vishwavidyalaya, a university dedicated to teaching classical music in the traditional Guru-Shishya mode and hoped that such an institution would be instrumental in sensitising people to the great heritage that our classical music offers. Not only would such a university be a sort of fountainhead institution providing knowledge and guidance to the students of classical music, it would be a centre for research and encourage creative innovation which may ultimately challenge the invasion from the skies in the form of alien and unsuitable westernisation. If every zone and state could provide such watershed institutions, the cultural future of the country could change.

The next speaker was Dr. Kiran Seth, founder and guiding spirit of the SPIC-MACAY (Society for the Promotion of Indian Music and Culture Amongst Youth) an organisation which has made an enormous contribution to creating an awareness for the classical music and dance heritage among young school and college students in India. He stressed the need to arrange concerts which are more affordable and audience-friendly. By this he meant that the enormous costs needed for holding concerts and recitals have to be reduced to a level where organisers are encouraged to holding them more often. Also in view of the fact that young people (and also busy urban audiences) have a limited time available for entertainment, perhaps the format of traditional concerts need to be altered. The state should also consider instituting awards and incentives for creativity and encourage young artistes to devote themselves exclusively to the pursuit of music. He, too, stressed the need to revive and strengthen the guru-shishya parampara and the gharana system, which alone can ensure the future of classical music training. He also supported the need for fountainhead institutions which would provide both a centre for learning and build up a data base of archival material necessary for research scholars.

Pt. Shiv Kumar Sharma, the renowned santoor player, was the next speaker. He hoped that this seminar would be memorable for taking action on the suggestions being made by various people and not, like other seminars, turn out to be a one-day wonder. Unlike many others at the seminar, he said he was not unduly perturbed at the invasion from the skies. He recalled how when he first came as a young performer for the first time to the Harballabh, he had a small audience. Today the scene is different, he plays to packed houses everywhere. This can only mean that more, not less, people appreciate classical music now. Another noteworthy fact was that there are many more young people in the audience today than before Credit for this must go the SPIC-MACAY in large measure. In spite of these encouraging signs, however, Doordarshan has hardly any time for the telecast of classical music and on the rare occasions it does beam such programmes, they are pushed to the late-night slot when no-one watches them. Why should prime time viewing be reserved for cheap film music (which everyone deplores) and good music only be shown at off-hours ? In fact, if Doordarshan were to telecast some well-known sangeet sammelans and depict the huge audiences and their positive response, it would help to popularise classical music among trend-following youngsters. Sadly, neither the state-run Doordarshan nor the media and newspapers have ever taken any positive action to counter the mindless aping of West—all they are content to do is point it out.

He also offered some suggestions on how to attract the attention of young people towards classical performances. He suggested that a series of lecture-demonstrations by the top performers of the country be run on television and that the National Programme for Classical Music and 'Dance be moved from the late-night slot to a prime time one. Also, care should be taken to preserve the purity of our classical music, it would be suicidal to dilute it in order to pander to popular taste. He agreed that many artistes are now charging an enormous amount as concert fees and was open to suggestion on how this could be tackled, while keeping in mind that artistes too have a right to a life of dignity.

The discussion on this aspect was initiated by Dr. Kiran Seth, who began by saying there were two solutions to this problem; a short-term one and a long term one. In the first, the state has an important role to play. Here, he placed on record his appreciation of the generous support given by the Government of Punjab to organisations like the Harballabh Sangeet Sabha and Punjab Chapter of the SPIC-MACAY. Yet it is important to remember that here the role of the government must be discriminator and it should act as a catalyst in the process of revival. Corporate houses and businessmen could also be tapped for help. In the long term, the problem of money will be solved if we are able to develop audiences that are willing to pay for the privilege, of listening to quality music. Unfortunately, our educational system encourages little interest in this area. In the list of educational priorities, culture is at the bottom. An investment in this, however, would be of invaluable help in providing the kind of moral values and instruction that our young people are increasingly losing out on. Personal contact with the artiste will engender a feeling of respect and reverence that our educational system was once renowned for.

Unless this sort of spiritual link with our cultural heritage is re-established, we will lose a vital part of its strength, he felt. In fact what made the Harballabh unique and helped it to survive through 120 years was precisely this spiritual link. It bound the audience together in an unimaginable way. If we can somehow revive that spirit of mysticism and spirituality, we are safe from any threats.

He also offered a number of helpful suggestions on how to revive the old atmosphere; revive the baithak system and eliminate the proscenium format; insist on people not moving during a performance and thus distracting attention; flash and video photography should be banned; jarring and distracting decor on the stage should be done away with. This would also reduce the cost of the concert. In fact, the effort of the organisers should be to duplicate the atmosphere of a holy place and ask people to desist from all activity which defiles a place of worship. All this would invest the concert with an altogether different atmosphere.

Dr. Anand Dev, Chairman of Lalit Kala Akademi spoke next and chose to dwell on length at the system of awards and incentives given to artistes. He deplored that increasingly awards were being arranged around the corridors of power and that many deserving artistes remain neglected and forgotten. He was concerned at the increasing gap between generations and urged a dialogue on this.

The highlight of the seminar was a delightful and informal chat by Ustad Bismillah Khan, surely one of the living treasures of the country. He recalled the old times when kings and royal patrons would take care of the artistes in their courts. With a remarkable lack of bitterness he spoke of the indifference of the new patrons of music and their crass attitudes. He chose instead to praise all those who do what they can to spread music and joy. 'Our music is classical music', he said and with that simple statement decimated all those electronically motivated gyrations that the television offers us as music. His music was bred in the home, not in schools and he has no degrees; if he has one teacher, it is his God. It was a truly humbling experience to listen to him speak of his life. His simplicity comes from the uncomplicated path he chose for himself; music and only music!

There was a brief discussion at this point by some guests from Jammu and Ambala, who shared their problems as organisers with the assembled speakers.

Pt. Hariprasad Chaurasia spoke next. Again, it was the guru-shishya parampara he praised. In spite of years of dedication to his music and his awesome reputation as a flautist, he felt he was invisible to a large segment of the state bureaucracy. The old royal patrons were certainly more caring of their artistes, he felt. Why cannot the government give land and a generous amount of money to artistes like Ustad Bismillah Khan so that the gurukul system can be revived?

Dr. S.L. Mishra who spoke next traced the glorious history of our classical music. Through the ages, in literature and iconography, music has been accorded the highest place. Our greatest philosophers and saints (Guru Govind, Meerabhai, Surdas, Kabir, Nizammuddin Auliya) have been musicians as well. He spoke with pride of the unparalleled grammar of our notational system which far exceeds anything that the West or any other civilisation has to offer. Whereas others read their music, we play with our mind and hearts.

Unfortunately, in an effort to popularise our music we have debased and vulgarised it. There is a need to revive the old traditions and also to provide a base for research. Mishra spoke of his own experiments in using music to treat mentally disabled children. There is thus need for a new kind of University; a university of music, which will train a child from childhood to adulthood into the complexity of our classical music.

A spirited discussion took place here. Sh. B.K. Srivastava felt that the time had come for us to proscribe the limits of vulgarity and set standards for telecasting and broadcasting that would severely chastise any violation of the code of decency. Also that the university of music suggested by Dr. Mishra be autonomous and beyond the purview of state auditing as well as have an independent hand in the selection of candidates suitable for admission.

Sh. Ashwini Kumar, whom many old Jalandhar residents remember with fondness for his great interest in classical music, recalled the old days of the Harballabh festival and had several interesting stories to relate. He also defended the government's lack of funding cultural efforts by saying that in a developing country like ours, sports and culture are still considered low priority areas. He suggested that we should set up orchestras like the Philharmonic Orchestras of the West to widen the appeal of classical music.

Sh. N. Khosla, a retired civil servant from Punjab and a dedicated organiser of connoisseur of classical music offered some insights. He also felt that the situation is not as alarming as some speakers have made it out to be. Classical music is not dying; it is merely changing. There is a need for a channel for classical music on television just as there is one for pop music. There is also a need for music appreciation classes so that interested people can educate themselves. Identify talented children and then sponsor them for training at the gurukul of a good teacher.

Sh. Amitabha Pande, Secretary, Cultural Affairs to the Govt. of Punjab, spoke next on the issue of financial support. This he considered less important than the need for financial autonomy and had two suggestions:

(i) That we develop mechanisms to filter assistance from government and the corporate sector to avoid a relationship of dependence on them,

(ii) That we consider cross-raising of finances between commercially viable and unviable activities. That is, we hold concerts of popular artistes and use the money earned there to finance classical concerts for smaller audiences. The relationship between classical, folk and pop music can be made an interactive one. This may also help to bridge the distance between an artificially isolated classical music which has to be preserved in a popular form. Taking his cue from the success of television serials like 'Sa-re-ga-ma', 'Surabhi' and 'Antakshri', he felt there was space for using television creativity to widen the appeal of good music, classical or otherwise.

The concluding round of the seminar were a series of interventions made by His Excellency Lt. Gen. (Retd) Sh. B.K.N. Chhibber, the Governor of Punjab. After listening carefully to the suggestions offered by the various participants, he felt that the setting up of a university was too big an idea to start off with and that an order of precedence had to be established. It was a shame that even after 121 years, the Harballabh Sangeet Sammelan was still not financially secure. Therefore, there was need to set a corporate fund for it. He promised that he would speak to the state government about it. The cultural activities of the state need to be dovetailed with each other, therefore, the Harballabh Sangeet Sammelan should focus its attention on the cultural development of the entire North Zone region. He hoped that the efforts of the seminar would focus attention also on the crying need for dedicated colleges before tackling the larger job of setting up a university.

The seminar thus concluded a fruitful discussion on various tasks ahead for the Harballabh Sangeet Sammelan and provided much matter for further reflection. The presence of the Governor was in itself a signal that after the long dark days of terrorism, Punjab has turned its attention once more to the importance of harmony and a common heritage of music and spiritual knowledge.

DRAFT PROJECT OF

HARBALLABH SANGEET VISHWAVIDYALAYA

Indian Classical Music has been considered as unparalleled to music of all the parts of this globe, because of its some unique features like :

1. Intonation of svaras with emotion
2. Ragas which are only in Indian Classical Music.
3. Composing each fraction of Raag and style during performance whereas music of all the countries are pre-composed

Its theoretical part was developed by the musicologists having fathomless knowledge Bharat the pioneer exponent of music and author of Natya Shastra gave the first commendable knowledge of svaras and shrutis to the music lovers. During medieval period Snnivas, Ahobal, Lochan and other eminent scholars multiplied exposition of the general principles of music. Their contemporary musicians Swamy Haridas, Tansen, Baiju Bawara and others bestowed boundless contribution to the practical aspect of Indian Classical Music.

Thus both the theoretical and practical parts of music were well preserved during medieval period

In first half of the twentieth century Shri V.N. Bhatkhande defined various principles of classical music and made a praiseworthy collection of Dhrupad Dhamar, Khayal, Sargam and Lakshangeat which are published in Kramik Pustak Malika in 6 parts. Pt. Vishnu Digamber Paluskar of the same period popularised Hindustani Classical music among the masses. The names of vocalists like Bade Ghulam Ali Khan, Ustad Faiyaz Khan, Ustad Amir Khan will always be remembered. Pt. Ravi Shankar and Ustad Vilayat Khan the wizards of Sitar have the credit of popularising Indian Music in western countries.

All these renowned musicians belong to Gharanas of music and learnt this art through Guru-Shishya parampara in which music is transmitted in succession from Guru to Shisya. Both for teaching and learning music Guru-Shisya Parampara has been regarded as the best medium.

After the independence music became one of the disciplines in educational institutions. The universities issued degrees upto Ph.D in music and only those teachers are appointed in institutions who obtain degrees from the universities. It was kept at par to other subjects and without testing aptitude any student can opt music. The standard of music immensely deteriorated upto such extent that most of the candidates having post graduate degree in music are unable to tune their own instruments.

The film music, western music and new types of cheap light music haunted minds of the youngsters and they have no inclination towards classical music.

It is high time to preserve the Indian classical music. This can be done through music universities whose sole aim and object shall be to promote the classical music.

Since, Vedic Sangeet sprouted in the soul of Punjab, hence it has honour of being the pioneer of music of India.

It will be a creditable and noble task for Punjab to have a University of Music which can revive Indian music. Name of the saint musician Swamy Hariballabh is known throughout the four corners of the country For his commemoration a prestigious Harballabh Sangeet Sammelan is organised every year during the month of December at Devi Talab Jalandhar. The 121st Harballabh Sangeet Sammelan will be celebrated from December 20 to 22, 1996. The renowned musicians feel honoured to participate in this Sangeet Sammelan.

For eternity of his name it will be appropriate to name the university as Hariballabh Sangeet Vishwa Vidyalaya. This will be a North Zone University having association with Kashmir, Rajasthan, Himachal, Haryana and Punjab.

The salient features of the University will be as under :

- * It will be recognised by the U.G.C.
- * For teaching of practical music, lecturers with capability of giving good performance will be appointed and efficient musicologists will teach the theoretical part.
- * The Guru-Shishya Parampara will be maintained. Students will be given opportunity to be much associated with their teachers as is done in Guru-Shishya Parampara.
- * Students will be admitted after testing their aptitude.
- * Educational qualification will be B.A. Students can opt for two subjects out of Vocal, Instrumental (Svar Vadya) percussion instrument and dancing. English will be compulsory subject. The students will appear in the examination upto B.A. as private candidates and this university will make arrangement for their private coaching.
- * There will be a research department for doing research on different topics of music.
- * At present the standard of music teachers has much declined due to imperfect training in the institutions. To upgrade the standard this university will introduce music teachers Diploma and Degree. HARBALLABH SANGEET SAMMELAN

— a pilgrimage for musicians & music lovers

When the events cultivate into traditions and the tradition gets the reverence and respect from all those who know about it, or have heard about it, or have been associated with it; all heads bow to those who initiated the event, to those who nurtured it to make it a tradition. At the same time the present generation gets bestowed with a responsibility to add to the glory of the event and the tradition. How true it is when people say that it takes untiring efforts of centuries to build a tradition and equally untiring efforts of the caretakers to maintain the glory and splendour of the majestic traditions. The institution of ' ' Harballabh ' ' has all the glory and splendour of the majestic tradition. The fact that this institution of Harballabh has been there, and is contributing effectively in the promotion and preservation of Indian Classical Music for the last 120 years, speaks volumes about the good work being done by this institution.

Ever since its revival in 1989 and later when the reconstituted body of Shree Baba Harballabh Sangeet Mahasabha took over in 1992, Harballabh has crossed many a milestones, received many a laurels, and has won the hearts of musicians and music lovers from India and abroad. Given below is a brief account of our achievements.

1995 ---- A Year of Rejuvenation

1995 was the year when its President Sh. B.K. Srivastava IAS, Commissioner, Jalandhar Division gave a new direction and charged it with vigour and enthusiasm. The new thoughts that came from different sections of society were given a warm welcome. As a result the Mahasabha, accepted new challenges besides improving the quality of its Sangeet Sammelans and Competitions.

Shree Baba Harballabh Sangeet Vishwavidyalaya

An idea mooted by the President Sh. B.K. Srivastava gained wide acceptance from the music lovers in the states of Punjab, Haryana, U P., J & K, Himachal, Delhi, Chandigarh and Rajasthan. To be the first one of its kind in this part of our country. It will work to strengthen the Guru-Shishya Parampara.

Shree Baba Harballabh Sangeet Sammaan

Shree Baba Harballabh Sangeet Seva Puruskar

If it is for the talented to give their best to the society, it becomes the moral duty of the society to promote and preserve the talent and to recognise and support the talented. This role used to be performed by the rulers in the past. Now it is the duty of the government and non-governmental organisations like ours to fill the vacuum left by the erstwhile rulers.

1995 was the year when for the first time Shree Baba Harballabh Sangeet Sammaan was conferred upon two individuals Satguru Jagjit Singh Ji Maharaj of Bhaini Sahib and Shri Kiran Seth, Vice Chairperson of SPIC-MACAY who are institutions in themselves and have contributed a lot through their selfless service to the Indian Classical Music

1995 also saw Shree Baba Harballabh Sangeet Seva Puruskar being conferred upon two great personalities Shri Navjeevan Khosla from Chandigarh and Shri. K.K. Bhatnagar for their services in promotion of Indian Classical Music.

Membership of the Mahasabha

To broaden the horizon, to get active participation and support from music lovers, musicians, the Mahasabha was reorganised by asking the existing members to enrol themselves afresh and by requesting prominent citizens to enroll themselves as members in the Mahasabha. Good response greeted the organisers and it was decided to keep the membership enrolment open for the music lovers.

Tribute by a Saint to another Saint

Satguru Jagjit Singh Ji Maharaj of Bhaini Sahib showed a way to many others when he presented 'a purse of Rs. ONE LAC' while paying his respect to BABA HARIBALLABH.

Patronage by the State

Although Shree Baba Harballabh Sangeet Mahasabha has always enjoyed the patronage of the state in the past, yet 1995 saw the Government of Punjab extend its patronage to this oldest festival of Indian Classical Music in a bigger way. S. Harcharan Singh Brar, the then Chief Minister of Punjab gave a grant of Rupees FIVE LACS and the then Chairman of PSEB Sh. R.N. They have served the Mahasabha with a renewed vigour under the able leadership of the President Sh. B.K. Srivastava. Those who could give time, gave their time in planning and organising the Sammelan. Those who could extend their financial help, did so. But all citizens of Jalandhar supported the mega event with all their good wishes and took pride in hosting this mega event.

AN INSIGHT INTO HINDUSTANI CLASSICAL MUSIC

SWAR, SAPTAK, THAAT & RAAG

An indepth study of Hindustani Classical Music may not be possible without a total understanding of the swar, layas saptak, thaata and the raaga.

SWAR (स्वर)

The Rigveda contains verses chanted in one note. Gathas were chanted into two notes and Samveda has verses of three notes. During that period the notes were called Udatta, Anudatta and Swarita. Later on other notes were added gradually and thus seven notes of the saptak or octave were formed. One saptak contains seven notes called : 1. Shadja 2. Rishabh 3. Gandhar 4. Madhyam 5. Pancham 6. Dhaivat 7. Nishad. The monosyllabic forms of the notes were found as Sa, Re, Ga, Ma, Pa, Dha, Ni. These seven notes are divided into two kinds : 1. Shudh 2. Vikrit

Shudh as the name suggests are pure natural and normal notes.

Vikrit notes are of two kinds .

1. Komal (कोमल) or Flat

When a note is lower from the usual pitch fixed for it is called komal or flat. There are four notes out of seven which change their position towards lower side i.e., Re, Ga, Dha & Ni.

2. Teevar (तीव्र) or Sharp

When a note is raised from the usual natural pitch it is called Teevar or Sharp. There is only one note i.e., Madhyam (ma) which changes the position towards higher side.

Sa and Pa notes do not tend themselves to any change. So they are called achal, permanent or fixed notes. Now we find seven shudh notes, five vikrit notes and thus twelve notes in total.

SAPTAK (सप्तक) OR OCTAVE

A series of seven notes from Shadja or Nishad is called saptak. In other words a combination of seven notes is called saptak. Thus the three saptaks are mentioned as under :

1. Mandra Saptak · Lower pitch 2. Madhya Saptak · Middle pitch 3. Taar Saptak · High pitch

THAAT (ठाट)

Shruti derived from Nad. Swar originated from Shruti and Saptak has been produced from Swar and Thaata originated from Saptak. Thus undoubtedly a Thaata is the father of Raga. Now we see the evolution of Thaata from these seven notes. A Thaata means a scale which employs the notes of certain intervals from Shadja to Nishad. Finally we can say that a combination of seven notes which is capable to produce ragas is known as Thaata. There are a few rules regarding characterisation of Thaata .

1. A Thaats must have seven notes out of the twelve notes of the octave.
2. The notes of a Thaats must be in a regular order i.e., raising one after the other like the steps of a ladder.
3. All the notes should be in ascending order i.e., Sa, Re, Ga, Ma, Pa, Dha, Ni.

Pt. Vayankaitmakhi a great South Indian scholar derived for the first time seventy-two Thaats from twelve notes. This he did by mere mathematical calculations, by combination and permutation.

We can prepare thirty-two Thaats from a North Indian Saptak. Out of these thirty-two Thaats, ten popular Thaats have been selected by Pt. V.N. Bhatkhande as follows :

- | | | | | |
|-------------|-----------|-----------|------------|----------|
| 1. Bilawal | 2. Kalyan | 3. Khamaj | 4. Bhairav | 5. Purvi |
| 6. Bhairavi | 7. Kafi | 8. Marva | 9. Asavari | 10. Todi |

Raag (राग)

Vayankaitmakhi derived his seventy-two Thaats from 12 notes and Sh. V.N. Bhatkhande derived thirty-two Thaats from twelve notes by simple permutation and combination. The Raga defined by author of Sangeet Ratnakara :

Which means : ' ' The special combination of sounds in which beauty has been imparted by swaras and varnas and which pleases the listeners' mind has been defined as Raga by the Pandits. ' '

There are so many conditions which a Raga must fulfill. A few are mentioned here :

1. It must be derived from a Thaats.
2. It must has a pleasing and melodious effect.
3. There must be at least five notes in a Raag.
4. It must have an Ascent (Arohi) and descent (Avrohi).
5. Shadaj (Sa) the first note can not be left out from a Raag. However, any other note may be dropped.
6. Every Raag must have Vadi-Samvadi notes.
7. A particular time/season has been fixed/allotted to perform a Raag.

Here is a list of a few Ragas derived from these Ten main THATAS :

THAAT	RAAGAS
1. Bilawal	Aihya Bilawal, Kukabh Bilawal, Devgiri Bilawal, Deshkar, Asa, Durga, Bihag, Jaldhar Kedar, Chakardhar, Bhinshadaj, Shankara, Bihagara, Nat.

Punjab's Contribution To Indian Classical Music

By B.S. Narang

Punjab is proud to be the home of Indus Valley Civilisation – one of the oldest civilisation of the world. It has tremendously contributed towards the development of Indian Culture and Music. This holy land used to be called Brahmavarta, Brahmabhumi and Devbhumi in ancient times. Great importance has been attached to music in our scriptures mostly written in Punjab. Music is the nearest link between man and God. It has produced the celestial prodigies of music like Goddess Saraswati and Bharat Muni, the writer of Natya Shastra. It is said that ancestors of Swami Haridas and Tansen belonged to Punjab.

Our Great Gurus have attached prominence to music in the Holy Granth Sahib. Punjab has the privilege to have the different schools of music such as Haryana Gharana, Talwandi Gharana, Patiala Gharana and Sharn Chaurasi Gharana. ਪੰਜਾਬ ਵਿਚ ਖੱਯਾਲ ਗਾਇਕੀ

ਖੱਯਾਲ ਦੇ ਆਗਮਨ ਤੋਂ ਪਹਿਲਾਂ ਪੰਜਾਬ ਵਿਚ ਧੂਪਦ ਗਾਇਕੀ ਦੇ ੪ ਉੱਘੇ ਘਰਾਣੇ ਸਨ, ਜਿਨ੍ਹਾਂ ਨੂੰ ਤਲਵੰਡੀ, ਹਰਿਆਣਾ, ਸ਼ਾਮ ਚੌਰਾਸੀ ਤੇ ਕਪੂਰਥਲਾ ਘਰਾਣੇ ਦੇ ਨਾਮ ਨਾਲ ਜਾਣਿਆ ਜਾਂਦਾ ਸੀ। ਧੂਪਦ ਗਾਇਕਾਂ ਨੂੰ ਮਲਿਕਜ਼ਾਦਾ ਕਿਹਾ ਜਾਂਦਾ ਸੀ।

ਭਾਰਤ ਦੇ ਸ਼ਾਸ਼ਤਰੀ ਸੰਗੀਤ ਦੇ ਇਤਿਹਾਸ ਵਿਚ ਅਸੀਂ ਵੇਖਦੇ ਹਾਂ ਕਿ ਖਯਾਲ ਗਾਇਕੀ, ਧੂਪਦ ਗਾਇਕੀ ਦੀ ਸੁਨਿਸ਼ਚਤ ਵਿਧਾ ਦੇ ਅਗਲੇ ਦੌਰ ਵਜੋਂ ਪ੍ਰਫੁੱਲਤ ਹੁੰਦੀ ਹੈ। ਸਮੇਂ ਵਿਚ ਤਬਦੀਲੀ ਆਉਣ ਨਾਲ ਅਤੇ ਪੁਰਾਤਨ ਸਮੇਂ ਦੀ ਸੁਨਿਸ਼ਚਤ ਵਿਧਾ ਦੇ ਸਥਾਨ ਉੱਤੇ ਸੰਗੀਤ ਦਾ ਇਕ ਵਧੇਰੇ ਲਚਕੀਲਾ ਅਤੇ ਸਿੰਗਾਰਿਤ ਰੰਗਦਾਰ ਦੌਰ ਆਉਂਦਾ ਹੈ ਜੋ ਵਧੇਰੇ ਗਰਮਜੋਸੀ, ਅਮੀਰੀ ਭਰਪੂਰ ਤੇ ਆਨੰਦਦਾਇਕ ਹੈ। ਅਜਿਹੇ ਸੰਗੀਤ ਨੇ ਸੰਗੀਤ ਦੀ ਪਰੰਪਰਾ ਵਿਚ ਪ੍ਰਗਟਾਵੇ ਦੀ ਵਧੇਰੇ ਆਜ਼ਾਦੀ ਦਿੱਤੀ ਹੈ ਅਤੇ ਇਸ ਨੂੰ ਹੀ ਖਯਾਲ ਗਾਇਕੀ ਕਹਿੰਦੇ ਹਨ। ਇਹ ਸਮੇਂ ਅਨੁਸਾਰ ਦੁੱਕਵੀਂ ਵੀ ਸੀ। ਜਿਥੇ ਗਾਇਕੀ ਵਿਚ ਇਕ ਸੁਨਿਸ਼ਚਤ ਰਵੱਈਆ ਰੱਖਣਾ ਜ਼ਰੂਰੀ ਸੀ ਉਥੇ ਖਯਾਲ ਸਦਕਾ ਉਦਾਰਤਾ ਦਾ ਸਮਾਂ ਵੀ ਆਇਆ। ਇਹ ਅਮਲ ਅਮੀਰ ਖੁਸਰੋ ਦੇ ਰਚਨਾਤਮਕ ਯਤਨਾਂ ਸਦਕਾ ਸ਼ੁਰੂ ਹੁੰਦਾ ਹੈ ਅਤੇ ਨਿਆਮਤ ਖ਼ਾਨ ਸਦਾਰੰਗ ਅਤੇ ਫਿਰੋਜ਼ ਖ਼ਾਨ ਅਦਾਰੰਗ ਦੀ ਸੰਵੇਦਨਸ਼ੀਲ ਗਾਇਕੀ ਨਾਲ ਮੁਕੰਮਲ ਹੁੰਦਾ ਹੈ ਜਿਨ੍ਹਾਂ ਨੇ ਖਯਾਲ ਗਾਇਕੀ ਦੀ ਵਿਧਾ ਨੂੰ ਵਰਤਮਾਨ ਅਰਥ ਪ੍ਰਦਾਨ ਕੀਤੇ। ਗਾਇਕੀ ਨੂੰ ਕੋਮਲਭਾਵੀ ਬਣਾਉਣ ਦੀ ਸੂਖਮਤਾ ਸ਼ਾਸ਼ਤਰੀ ਬੰਧਨ, ਪ੍ਰਗਟਾਵੇ ਦੀ ਸੁੰਦਰਤਾ ਅਤੇ ਵੇਰਵੇ ਤੇ ਜ਼ੋਰ ਦਿੱਤੇ ਜਾਣ ਨਾਲ ਇਕ ਨਵੀਂ ਸ਼ਾਸ਼ਤਰੀ ਸ਼ੈਲੀ ਹੋਂਦ ਵਿਚ ਆਈ, ਜਿਸ ਨੂੰ ਖਯਾਲ 'ਅੰਗ' ਦਾ ਨਾਂ ਦਿੱਤਾ ਜਾਂਦਾ ਹੈ।

ਖਯਾਲ ਗਾਇਕੀ ਪਹਿਲਾਂ ਕੁਝ ਦੌਰ ਲਈ ਦਿੱਲੀ ਤਕ ਹੀ ਸੀਮਤ ਸੀ ਅਤੇ ਫੇਰ ੧੯ਵੀਂ ਸਦੀ ਦੇ ਦੌਰਾਨ ਹੀ ਇਹ ਨਵੀਂ ਸ਼ੈਲੀ ਪੰਜਾਬ ਤਕ ਪਹੁੰਚੀ। ਪਹਿਲਾਂ ਇਹ ਗਵਾਲੀਅਰ ਪਹੁੰਚੀ, ਜਿੱਥੇ ਹੱਦੁਖਾਣ ਅਤੇ ਹੱਸੂਖਾਨ ਨੇ ਖਯਾਲ ਗਾਇਕੀ ਦੇ ਗਵਾਲੀਅਰ ਘਰਾਣੇ ਦੀ ਬੁਨਿਆਦ ਰੱਖੀ। ਗਵਾਲੀਅਰ ਘਰਾਣੇ ਦੇ ਇਨ੍ਹਾਂ ਗਾਇਕਾਂ ਕੋਲੋਂ ਬੰਨੇ ਖ਼ਾਨ ਨੰਗਲੀ ਵਾਲੇ ਨੇ ਇਸ ਸ਼ੈਲੀ ਦਾ ਗਿਆਨ ਹਾਸਲ ਕੀਤਾ ਅਤੇ ਇਸ ਨੂੰ ਪੰਜਾਬ ਲੈ ਕੇ ਆਏ। ਜਿਥੇ ਜਾ ਕੇ ਭੂਰੇਖਾਨ, ਸਾਰਬਖਸ਼, ਪਿਆਰੇ ਖ਼ਾਨ ਅਤੇ ਮੱਛਰਖ਼ਾਨ ਤੇ ਮਿਸਰੀਖ਼ਾਨ ਵਰਗੇ ਉਸਤਾਦ ਗਾਇਕ ਉਸਦੇ ਸ਼ਾਗਿਰਦ ਬਣੇ। ਇਸੇ ਸਮੇਂ ਹੀ ਇਕ ਹੋਰ ਸੰਪਰਕ ਸਾਹਮਣੇ ਆਉਂਦਾ ਹੈ ਜਦੋਂ "ਜਰਨੈਲ" ਅਲੀਬਖਸ਼ ਅਤੇ 'ਕਪਤਾਨ' ਫਤਿਹ ਅਲੀ ਪਟਿਆਲੇ ਵਾਲੇ ਦਿੱਲੀ ਦੇ ਤਾਨਰਸ ਖ਼ਾਨ ਦੇ ਸਾਗਿਰਦ ਬਣੇ ਜੋ ਕਿ ਖਯਾਲੀਏ ਗਾਇਕ ਸਨ ਅਤੇ ਅਮੀਰ ਖੁਸਰੋ ਦੇ ਦਿਨਾਂ ਤੋਂ ਕਵਾਲ ਬੱਚੇ ਦੇ ਖਾਨਦਾਨ ਦੇ ਸਾਗਿਰਦ ਸਨ। ਇਨ੍ਹਾਂ ਨੇ ਸੰਗੀਤ ਦੇ ਪਟਿਆਲਾ ਘਰਾਣੇ ਦੀ ਬੁਨਿਆਦ ਰੱਖੀ ਜਿਥੋਂ ਪੰਜਾਬ ਦੀ ਖਯਾਲ ਗਾਇਕੀ ਦਾ ਮਹੱਤਵਪੂਰਨ ਯੁਗ ਸ਼ੁਰੂ ਹੁੰਦਾ ਹੈ। ਇਨ੍ਹਾਂ ਦੇ ਸਪੁੱਤਰਾਂ ਆਸ਼ਿਕ ਅਲੀ ਖ਼ਾਨ, ਅਖਤਰ ਅਲੀ ਖ਼ਾਨ ਅਤੇ ਅਮਾਨਤ ਅਲੀ ਖ਼ਾਨ, ਅਲੀ ਬਖਸ਼ ਅਤੇ ਹੁਸੈਨ ਬਖਸ਼ ਨੇ ਇਸ ਪਰੰਪਰਾ ਨੂੰ ਅਗੇ ਅਮੀਰ ਬਣਾਇਆ।

ਸੰਗੀਤਕਾਰਾਂ ਦਾ ਇਕ ਹੋਰ ਪਰਿਵਾਰ ਨਜ਼ਾਕਤ ਅਲੀ ਅਤੇ ਸਲਾਮਤ ਅਲੀ ਇਸ ਗਾਇਕੀ ਨੂੰ ਸ਼ਾਮ ਚੌਰਾਸੀ ਤਕ ਲੈ ਕੇ ਗਏ ਜੋ ਇਸ ਪਰੰਪਰਾ ਦੇ ਮਹਾਨ ਗਾਇਕ ਸਨ। ਤਾਨਰਸ ਖ਼ਾਨ ਦੇ ਇਕ ਹੋਰ ਸਾਗਿਰਦ ਪੀਰ ਬਖਸ਼ ਕਸੂਰ ਚਲੇ ਗਏ ਅਤੇ ਉਥੇ ਉਨ੍ਹਾਂ ਨੇ ਇਕ ਨਵੀਂ ਸ਼ੈਲੀ ਨੂੰ ਵੀ ਸ਼ੁਰੂ ਕੀਤਾ। ਉਸਦੇ ਜਾਨਸ਼ੀਨਾਂ ਵਿਚ ਅਲੀ ਬਖਸ਼ ਅਤੇ ਕਾਲੇ ਖ਼ਾਨ ਸਨ ਜੋ ਬੜੇ ਗੁਲਾਮ ਅਲੀ ਖ਼ਾਨ ਦੇ ਵਾਲਿਦ ਅਤੇ ਚਾਚਾ ਸਨ। ਬੜੇ ਗੁਲਾਮ ਅਲੀ ਖ਼ਾਨ ਖਯਾਲ ਗਾਇਕਾਂ ਵਿਚ ਸਭ ਤੋਂ ਵੱਧ ਮਸ਼ਹੂਰ ਕਲਾਕਾਰ ਸਨ। ਉਨ੍ਹਾਂ ਦੇ ਪਿਤਾ ਨੇ "ਕਪਤਾਨ" ਫਤਿਹ ਅਲੀ ਅਤੇ "ਜਰਨੈਲ" ਬਖਸ਼ ਅਲੀ ਕੋਲੋਂ ਵੀ ਸਿੱਖਿਆ ਲਈ ਅਤੇ ਇਸ ਤਰ੍ਹਾਂ ਪਟਿਆਲਾ ਘਰਾਣੇ ਦੇ ਸੰਗੀਤ ਨੂੰ ਕਵਾਲ ਬੱਚੇ ਖਾਨਦਾਨ ਦੀ ਸ਼ੈਲੀ ਨਾਲ ਮਿਸ਼ਰਤ ਕੀਤਾ। ਇਹ ਉਸਤਾਦ ਬੜੇ ਗੁਲਾਮ ਅਲੀ ਖ਼ਾਨ ਹੀ ਸਨ ਜਿਨ੍ਹਾਂ ਨੇ ਪਟਿਆਲਾ ਘਰਾਣੇ ਨੂੰ ਉਹ ਸੰਪੂਰਨ ਰੂਪ ਦਿੱਤਾ ਜਿਸ ਤੋਂ ਇਸ ਦੀ ਸਲਾਹੁਤ ਹੁੰਦੀ ਹੈ ਅਤੇ ਉਸ ਨੂੰ ਜਾਣਿਆ ਜਾਂਦਾ ਹੈ। ਉਨ੍ਹਾਂ ਦੇ ਭਰਾ ਬਰਕਤ ਅਲੀ ਖ਼ਾਨ ਅਤੇ ਪੁੱਤਰ ਮੁਨੱਵਰ ਅਲੀ ਖ਼ਾਨ ਨੇ ਇਸ ਸ਼ੈਲੀ ਵਿਚ ਬੜਾ ਮਹੱਤਵਪੂਰਨ ਯੋਗਦਾਨ ਪਾਇਆ। ਪੰਜਾਬ ਤੀ ਖਯਾਲ ਗਾਇਕੀ ਦੇ ਹੋਰ ਮਸ਼ਹੂਰ ਗਾਇਕਾਂ ਵਿਚ ਮੀਆਂ ਜਾਨ ਖ਼ਾਨ ਅਤੇ ਅੱਲਾ ਦੁੱਈਆ ਖ਼ਾਨ 'ਮੇਹਰਬਾਨ'.

ਕੰਵਰ ਬਿਕ੍ਰਮ ਸਿੰਘ ਅਤੇ ਰਾਜਾ ਸਰ ਦਲਜੀਤ ਸਿੰਘ ਦੀ ਛਤਰ ਛਾਇਆ ਹੇਠ ਕਪੂਰਥਲਾ ਸ਼ਾਸਤਰੀ ਸੰਗੀਤ ਦੇ ਇਕ ਮਹੱਤਵਪੂਰਨ ਕੇਂਦਰ ਵਜੋਂ ਉਭਰਿਆ। ਅੱਤਾ ਮੁਹੰਮਦ, ਭਾਈ ਲਾਲ ਅਤੇ ਗੁਲਾਮ ਹੁਸੈਨ ਸ਼ਗਨ ਇਸ ਘਰਾਣੇ ਦੇ ਮੰਨੇ ਪ੍ਰਮਾਣੇ ਕਲਾਕਾਰ ਸਨ। ਅੱਤਾ ਮੁਹੰਮਦ, ਬੰਨੇਖਾਨ ਨੰਗਲੀ ਵਾਲੇ ਦੇ ਸਾਗਿਰਦ ਸਨ ਜੋ ਗਵਾਲੀਅਰ ਦੇ ਹੱਦਖਾਨ ਦੇ ਅਨੁਯਾਈ ਸਨ। ਉਨ੍ਹਾਂ ਦੇ ਪੁੱਤਰ ਭਾਈ ਲਾਲ ਨੇ ਵੀ ਉੱਘੇ ਰੱਬਾਬੀਏ ਮੀਆਂ ਮਹਿਬੂਬ ਅਲੀ ਤੋਂ ਸਿੱਖਿਆ ਗ੍ਰਹਿਣ ਕੀਤੀ ਜੋ ਕਪੂਰਥਲੇ ਦੇ ਕੰਵਰ ਬਿਕ੍ਰਮ ਸਿੰਘ ਦੇ ਦਰਬਾਰ ਵਿਚ ਰਹੇ ਅਤੇ ਉਥੇ ਮੀਰ ਅਹਿਮਦ ਅਲੀ ਦੇ ਸਾਗਿਰਦ ਬਣੇ। ਇਥੇ ਹੀ ਪੰਜਾਬ ਦੇ ਸੰਗੀਤ ਅਤੇ ਮੀਆਂ ਤਾਨਸੇਨ ਦੇ ਸੇਨੀਆਂ ਬੀਨਕਾਰ ਘਰਾਣੇ ਵਿਚਕਾਰ ਦਿਲਚਸਪ ਸੰਪਰਕ ਸਾਹਮਣੇ ਆਉਂਦਾ ਹੈ। ਇਹ ਤਾਂ ਸਭ ਜਾਣਦੇ ਹਨ ਕਿ ਤਾਨਸੇਨ ਦੀ ਧੀ ਬੀਨਕਾਰ ਘਰਾਣੇ ਦੇ ਰਾਜਾ ਮਿਸਰੀਚੰਦ ਨਾਲ ਵਿਆਹੀ ਗਈ ਸੀ। ਉਨ੍ਹਾਂ ਦੇ ਅਨੁਯਾਈ ਮੀਆਂ ਫਿਰੋਜ਼ ਖ਼ਾਨ 'ਅਦਰੰਗ' ਦੀ ਪੋਤਰੀ ਦਾ ਨਿਕਾਹ ਇਸ ਮਹਾਨ ਸ਼ੈਲੀ ਦੇ ਇਕ ਸੱਯਦ ਨਾਲ ਹੋਇਆ ਸੀ ਅਤੇ ਉਨ੍ਹਾਂ ਦੇ ਪੁੱਤਰ ਮੀਰ ਨਾਸਿਰ ਅਹਿਮਦ ਨੇ ਇਹ ਤਾਲੀਮ ਆਪਣੇ ਦਾਦੇ ਹਿੰਮਤ ਖ਼ਾਨ ਕੋਲੋਂ ਪ੍ਰਾਪਤ ਕੀਤੀ। ਜਿਸ ਨੇ ਉਸ ਨੂੰ ਆਪਣਾ ਵਾਰਿਸ ਬਣਾਇਆ ਅਤੇ ਆਪਣੇ ਘਰਾਣੇ ਦੀ ਸੱਮੁਚੀ ਤਾਲੀਮ ਦਿੱਤੀ। ਮੀਰ ਨਾਸਿਰ ਅਹਿਮਦ ਨੇ ਇਸ ਤਰ੍ਹਾਂ ਸੇਨੀਆਂ, ਬੀਨਕਾਰ ਘਰਾਣੇ ਦੀ ਵੀ ਤਾਲੀਮ ਲੈ ਲਈ। ਇਹ ਕਿਹਾ ਜਾਂਦਾ ਹੈ ਕਿ ਉਹ ਬਹਾਦੁਰ ਸਾਹ ਜਫ਼ਰ ਦਾ ਦਰਬਾਰੀ ਸੀ ਅਤੇ ਜਦੋਂ ਬਾਦਸ਼ਾਹ ਅਤੇ ਉਸਦੇ ਵੱਡੇ ਦਰਬਾਰੀਆਂ ਦੀ ਦੇਸ਼ ਨਿਕਾਲਾ ਜਾਂ ਕੈਦ ਕਰਨ ਲਈ ਸਨਾਖਤ ਕੀਤੀ ਜਾ ਰਹੀ ਸੀ ਤਾਂ ਮੀਰ ਨਾਸਿਰ ਅਹਿਮਦ ਨੂੰ ਵੀ ਕੈਦ ਕਰ ਲਿਆ ਗਿਆ ਸੀ ਕਿਉਂਕਿ ਉਨ੍ਹਾਂ ਨੇ 'ਦਸਤਾਰ' ਬੰਨੀ ਹੋਈ ਸੀ ਜਿਸ ਦੀ ਕੇਵਲ ਉਹ ਦਰਬਾਰੀਆਂ ਨੂੰ ਹੀ ਬੰਨਣ ਦੀ ਆਗਿਆ ਸੀ। ਕੰਵਰ ਬਿਕ੍ਰਮ ਸਿੰਘ ਵਲੋਂ ਦਖ਼ਲ ਦੇਣ ਅਤੇ ਇਹ ਨਿੱਜੀ ਗਰੰਟੀ ਦੇਣ ਨਾਲ ਕਿ ਮੀਰ ਇਕ ਸੰਗੀਤਕਾਰ ਹੈ ਤੇ ਕੋਈ ਨੁਕਸਾਨ ਨਹੀਂ ਕਰ ਸਕਦਾ ਉਸਨੂੰ ਛੱਡ ਦਿੱਤਾ ਗਿਆ। ਇਸ ਮਗਰੋਂ ਕੰਵਰ ਬਿਕ੍ਰਮ ਸਿੰਘ ਉਨ੍ਹਾਂ ਨੂੰ ਕਪੂਰਥਲਾ ਲੈ ਆਏ ਜਿਥੇ ਉਨ੍ਹਾਂ ਨੇ ਆਪਣਾ ਬਾਕੀ ਸਾਰਾ ਜੀਵਨ ਗੁਜ਼ਾਰਿਆ। ਉਸਦੀ ਕਬਰ ਕਪੂਰਥਲਾ ਵਿਚ ਹੈ। ਉਸਦੇ ਦੋ ਪੁੱਤਰ ਸਨ। ਮੀਰ ਕਲਾਮ ਅਤੇ ਮੀਰ ਅਹਿਮਦ ਅਲੀ, ਜੋ ਦੋਵੇਂ ਆਪਣੇ ਸਮੇਂ ਦੇ ਉੱਘੇ ਸੰਗੀਤਕਾਰ ਸਨ। ਪੰਜਾਬ ਵਿਚ ਇਨ੍ਹਾਂ ਰਚਨਾਤਮਕ ਸੰਗੀਤਕਾਰਾਂ ਨੇ ਭਾਰਤ ਦੇ ਸ਼ਾਸਤਰੀ ਸੰਗੀਤ ਵਿਚ ਬਹੁਤ ਹੀ ਸੁੰਦਰ ਬੰਦਸ਼ਾਂ ਦੇ ਕੇ ਮਹੱਤਵਪੂਰਨ ਯੋਗਦਾਨ ਪਾਇਆ ਹੈ ਜੋ ਅੱਜ ਵੀ ਆਪਣੀ ਭਾਵ ਵਿਅੰਜਨਾ ਦੀ ਅਮੀਰੀ 'ਚ ਬੇਜੋਤ ਹਨ। ਪੰਜਾਬ ਨੇ ਭਾਰਤੀ ਸ਼ਾਸਤਰੀ ਸੰਗੀਤ ਨੂੰ ਕੁਝ ਰਾਗ ਦਿੱਤੇ ਹਨ ਜੋ ਅੱਜ ਵਧੇਰੇ ਲੋਕਪ੍ਰੀਤ ਹਨ। ਇਨ੍ਹਾਂ ਵਿਚ ਕਸੂਰੀ-ਭੈਰਵੀ, ਸਿੰਧੂਰਾ, ਮੁਲਤਾਨੀ (ਸੂਫੀ ਸ਼ੇਖ ਜ਼ਕਰੀਆ ਦੁਆਰਾ), ਜੈ ਜੈ ਵੰਤੀ (ਸਿੰਧੀ ਲੋਕ ਧੁਨ ਕੋਹਾਬਰੀ ਤੋਂ) ਜੋਗੀਆ, ਆਸਾ, ਕਾਫੀ, ਪਹਾੜੀ, ਸੋਰਠ ਅਤੇ ਵਡਹੰਸ ਜਾਣੇ ਪਛਾਣੇ ਰਾਗ ਹਨ। ਭਾਰਤ ਦਾ ਸਭ ਤੋਂ ਪੁਰਾਤਨ ਉਤਸਵ ਹਰਬਲਭ ਸੰਗੀਤ ਮੇਲਾ ਪਿਛਲੇ ੧੦੬ ਸਾਲਾਂ ਤੋਂ ਹਰ ਸਾਲ ਜਲੰਧਰ ਵਿਚ ਹੁੰਦਾ ਹੈ। ਸੰਗੀਤ ਦੀ ਸਭ ਤੋਂ ਮੁਸ਼ਕਲ ਸ਼ੈਲੀ ਟੱਪਾ ਮੀਆਂ ਗੁਲਾਮ ਅਲੀ ਸ਼ੇਰੀ ਨੇ ਇਥੇ ਹੀ ਤਿਆਰ ਕੀਤੀ ਸੀ। ਮਹੱਤਵਪੂਰਨ ਸੰਗੀਤ ਸਾਜ਼ ਵਿਚਿਤ੍ਰ ਵੀਣਾ ਵੀ ਪਟਿਆਲਾ ਦੇ ਉਸਤਾਦ ਅਬੱਦੁਲ ਅਜ਼ੀਜ਼ ਖ਼ਾਨ ਨੇ ਹੀ ਵਿਕਸਿਤ ਕੀਤਾ ਸੀ।

ਪੰਜਾਬੀ ਖਯਾਲ ਨੂੰ ਸਭ ਤੋਂ ਵੱਡੀ ਸ਼ਰਧਾਂਜਲੀ ਇਹੋ ਹੈ ਕਿ ਸ਼ਾਹ ਸਦਾਰੰਗ ਤੇ ਸ਼ਾਹ ਅਦਾਰੰਗ ਨੇ ਪੰਜਾਬੀ ਵਿਚ ਖਯਾਲ, ਬੰਦਸ਼ਾਂ ਤਿਆਰ ਕੀਤੀਆਂ ਹਨ।

"ਢੋਲਣ ਮੈਡੇ ਘਰ ਆਵੇ ਵੇ,
ਨਹੀਂ ਤਾਂ ਤਿੰਡ ਆਵੇ, ਸੱਦਕੇ ਜਾਵਾਂ,
ਮੁੱਖ ਤੋਂ ਦੇਖਾਂ, ਤੇ ਮੈਂ ਜੀਵਾਂ
ਸਦਾ ਰੰਗ ਕੋਈ ਸੈ, ਤੇ ਦਰਸ ਦਿਖਾ ਦੇਵੇ।"

UNDERSTANDING HINDUSTANI CLASSICAL MUSIC

CLASSICAL music is an English term that we use to describe a particular form of Indian music. The same art in the language of its birth (Hindi is referred to as 'Shastriya Sangeet' And that, translated into English means disciplined music.

Which is an apt description of the art. 'Discipline', yes. But discipline that allows the singer ample leeway to develop his voice, to perfect his technique to express his prowess in the art.

But classical music is not merely exhibiting one's expertise at voice acrobatics. It is much more

The Origins

LEGENDS on the origins of North Indian classical music abound. The real origin is shrouded in the hoary past. But we have a few interesting theories to reflect upon.

One legend has it that Brahma the Creator taught classical music to Lord Shiva, who imparted the same knowledge to Saraswati, the Goddess of learning. That is why Saraswati, in the ancient texts, is described as Veena Pustaka Dharini (one who has the musical instrument the veena and a book in her hands). Thereafter, the art was handed down in succession to the sage Narada, the celestial Gandharvas and Kinnaras, Bharata and Hanuman, who in turn propagated it to the people.

There is another legend that Shiva made a gift of music to Narada as a reward for his penance.

According to yet another legend, Lord Shiva once saw his consort Parvati in a reposeful pose. The sight inspired him to create the mudra veena (a specialised stringed instrument of the veena type). From the five mouths of Shiva, in the five directions, emanated the five raags -- Bhairav from the east, Hindol from the west, Megh from the south, Deepak from the north and Shri from the sky above. Parvati added one to this list: Kaushik.

All the legends have one fact in common - that music had divine origin. There are, however, a group of European writers who believe that man learnt to hum and sing in the course of his evolution and development. He absorbed music naturally, just the way a child cries or smiles of its own accord.

Modern North Indian classical music no doubt stems from ancient Indian music. But it seems to have acquired its present form after the 14th or 15th century A.D. The 'Natyasastra' is probably the earliest extant treatise on the dramatic arts. It has been dated variously from the 3rd century B.C. to the 5th century A.D. Musical theory is expounded in considerable detail in the 'Natyasastra'. Some of the technical terms in present day musical theory and practice derive their origin from this ancient source. Yet internal evidence shows that the musical system as described in the Natyasastra is considerably different from the music we know today.

The Raag & Emotions

'THAT which charms is a raag'. Indian music follows the Arabic and Persian tradition of focusing on a single emotion. It develops upon, explains, and cultivates the emotion. If the musician is possessed of sufficient skill, he can lead his audience to a depth and intensity of feeling undreamt of in other systems.

The essential feature of a raag thus is its power of evoking an emotion that casts a spell upon the listener. A raag does imply a certain combination of musical notes. But more important than this is its capacity to induce the appropriate emotion to the fullest extent.

Apart from the emotion aspect, there are certain laws which a raag must conform to the construction of raag must take into account the following features :

- 1) Thata or sequence of notes. Every raag is derived from a thata or scale.
- 2) Tatis or classification. Raags are placed under three categories. (a) Odava or pentatonic: a composition of five notes. (b) Sadava or hexatonic: a composition of six notes. (c) Sampooma or heptatonic: a composition of seven notes.
- 3) Vadi Samvadi relation. The principal note on which the raag is built is referred to as the vadi note. Its importance is emphasized in several ways. One stops on the note more frequently, stresses it a little more, etc. The Samvadi is the second important note in the raag.
- 4) Ascent and Descent. Every raag possesses an Aaroha (Ascent) and Avroha (Descent).

- 5) Important cluster of notes. By means of this group of notes, one is able to differentiate even between similar sounding raags.
- 6) Pitch. Certain raags move in a certain pitch. If the pitch is changed the raag does not create the mood and sentiment peculiar to it. The pitch determines the character of a raag.
- 7) Speed. Some raags are sung in a slow tempo (Vilambit), some in a medium (Madhyani) and some in a fast (Drut).

The rendering of a raag begins with the alaap. The alaap establishes the basic character of the raag. The upaj is an intermediary stage leading to the taan. The taan is the use of notes in order to make the rendering lively. Words are used to express the emotion (khyal) of the raag.

The Thata

EACH raag is derived from a particular thata. A thata may be regarded as the parent raag.

An ordinary Sargam comprises seven notes (Sa, re, ga, ma, pa, dha, ni).

Every raag has a fixed number of komal (soft), teevra (sharp) or Shuddha (pure) notes. A particular arrangement of the seven notes, with a change of the shuddha, komal, and teevra is referred to as a thata.

According to Pandit V.N. Bhatkhande, there are 10 thatas in all. All the raags have emanated, so to speak, from the 10 thatas. The 10 thatas are as follows: 1) The Bilawal Thata. All notes are Shuddha (pure). Some raags which have emanated from this thata are Bihag, Durga and Shankara. 2) The Khamaj Thata. Ni is komal (soft). Some common raags from this thata are Khamaj, Jayajavanti and Des. 3) The Kafi Thata. Ga and Ni are komal. Some raags from this thata are Bageshri, Bahar and Miyani ka Malhar. 4) The Asavari Thata. Ga, Dha and Ni are komal. Asavad (raag), Jaunpuri, Durbari Kanada are some raags from the Asavari thata. 5) The Bhairavi Thata. Re, Ga, Dha and Ni are komal. Some common raags: Bhairavi (raag), Malkauns. 6) The Bhairav Thata. Re and Dha are komal. Some common raags: Bhairav (raag), Kalingada, Ramkali. 7) The Poorvi Thata. Re and Dha are komal, Ma is teevra (sharp). 8) The Marva Thata. Re is komal, ma is teevra. Some common raags from this thata are Sohni, Marva, Puriya and Lalit. 9) The Todi Thata. Re, ga and dha are komal, ma is teevra. Some common raags are Todi (raag), and Multani. 10) The Kalyan Thata. Ma is teevra. Some common raags are Bhopali, Hamir, Kedar and Hindol.

Out of each of these 10 thatas, several raags have emerged. Therefore, when the beginner mistakes one raag for another, chances are that both raags emerge from the same thata.

A Time For Each Raag

EVERY raag is assigned a specific time of the day for rendering it. There is a reason for this.

The cycle of sounds is ruled by the same laws as rule all other cycles. There are natural relationships between particular hours and the moods evoked by the raags. Further the cycle of the day corresponds to the cycle of life which also has its dawn, its noon and its evening. Each hour represents a different stage of development and is associated with a certain kind of emotion.

There are certain characteristics which indicate the time of rendering the raag. Raags to be rendered between mid-day and midnight have their predominant note (vadi) in the lower tetrachord (purva anga). They are called purva raags. Raags to be rendered between midnight and mid-day have their predominant note in the upper tetrachord (uttara anga). They are referred to as uttara raags.

Lalit, Vabhas, the Bhairavi group, the Todi group - all these raags are early morning raags. The Bilawal groups of raags are sung in the late morning. Noon and afternoon raags include the Saranga group and Shri group. Pilu, Purvi and Dipak are evening raags. The Kalyan and Khamaj group of raags are raags of the early night. Malkauns, Bihag, Shankara are raags of midnight and late night.

Besides these, there are also seasonal raags like those of spring and those of the rainy season; Basant & Malhaar.

Styles

THERE are six principal styles in North Indian classical music. A raag may be rendered in any of these styles.

1. Dhrupad - The peculiarity of original Dhrupad compositions is that they give the essence of a particular raag in a nutshell. In learning vocal music one has to memorise these compositions. They give a complete idea of the raag and of how it should be systematically improvised on.
2. Dhomar - Usually sung after a Dhrupad, it generally depicts incidents connected with Holi. Dhमार compositions usually describe the pranks played by the playmates of Lord Krishna and his devotee Radha.

3. Khyal - Khyal is an Arabic word which means 'thought'. The Khyal recounts various incidents in a woman's life : her entreaties to her 'balam', her 'sajan', her 'priya' (all mean her lover). Also, her conversations with her loving 'sakhi'. The Khyal is graceful, elegant, and replete with embellishments
4. Taranas - Taranas are said to contain monosyllables like dir, da, na, tun, dar, din, yalili, yala, bum and yalatum. Taranas go to prove that even monosyllables can be effectively employed for the exposition of a raag. Taranas naturally call for a great deal of tongue-twisting, and expert tabla accompaniment.
5. Tappa - This style was invented by a certain Shorey Miyan of Lucknow. It is so called because it abounds in a variety of twists, curves and jumps, all set to a fast rhythm. The compositions have evolved on the theme of love and romance. Only persons with a highly flexible voice can aspire to sing a tappa.
6. Thumri - The art of dancing progressed alongside music. The thumri came into vogue. The songs in thumri are so modelled that they synchronise with the actions of the dancer. The poetry of the composition is interpreted through action.

What are Gharanas ?

ONE often comes across by this term when exposed to North Indian classical music. Gharanas came about some time in the eighteenth century. The objective was to preserve the traditions of music and the compositions of the few great musicians of Northern India. A gharana has a particular discipline, system and style of rendering. Liberal thinkers among musicians today are opposed to the system as it is said to channel or restrict the style of a singer, and prove a hindrance to further improvisation.

What It Takes to Learn Classical Music

IF one wants to learn North Indian classical music in all seriousness there are a few guide lines one must adhere to. These steps do not guarantee the making of a maestro, but being a maestro is not so important. Learning and enjoying the art is.

Continuous exposure to classical music is essential. Opportunities to sing, play, modify and create are important too. A sensitive and creative companionship with the teacher is an important requisite. And nothing is better than possessing the ability to develop creative modes of singing.

Indian philosophy stresses the existence of a reality behind the appearance of all physical objects. The same element lies latent in classical music too. According to one scholar, the use of ivory, bone and earth colours in the ornamentation of musical instruments lends the objects a subdued lustre whose beauty belongs to another world, as opposed to the obvious smartness of massproduced instruments. In this sense therefore, music is meant to give God to man, make accessible that mysterious Reality which evades man in all worldly, achievements.

Tarana	Muslim love song, reconstructed & refined by Shouri Mian who introduced it to Lucknow in 19th century. Before him they were simply folk songs of Punjabi camel drivers.
Teentaal	A fast moving popular melody using nonsense syllables like 'ta' and 'nu'.
Thillana	A 16 beat cycle divided 4+4+4+4.
Thumri	A lively musical form, usually set to and rendered in brisk pace. It is the Carnatic counterpart of the North Indian 'tarana'.
Tihai	Described as the expression of the singers soul and temperament, thumri is purely romantic or devotional in its content. It came into vogue in the eastern region (Purab) of Uttar Pradesh towards the close of the 18th century as an accompanying song of dance. Nawab Wajid Ali Shah of Avadh was probably the greatest known patron of thumri. Lucknow and Varanasi (Benaras) are the two centres from where thumri evolved into several varieties.
Tora	Short phrases played three times, ending on the first beat of the rhythm cycle.
Ustad	Fast runs, and repeated note passages.
Vadi	A learned one, master-musician.
Vilambit	The predominant note of the scale.
Viastara	Slow tempo.
	Improvisation or elaboration upon the note.
